

Alan Johnson

Brass Instructor

EDUCATION: 1977-1982 The University of Michigan
Trombone performance (Professor Glenn P. Smith)
Piano performance (Deborah Moriarty)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

9/2013 –present, Dedham Country Day School
Private lesson instructor
Teach private lessons for grades 4-8 on trumpet, trombone, and piano.

10/2015 –present, Quincy Band Boosters
Private lesson instructor
Teach private lessons for grades 5-12 on trumpet and trombone

9/2016 – present, Waltham Public Schools
Private lesson instructor
Teach private lessons for grades 2-12 on trumpet, trombone, euphonium, tuba, and piano

11/2016 - present, Wachusett Regional High School
Private lesson instructor
Teach private lessons for grades 9-12 on trombone, euphonium, and tuba

4/2016 - present, Sudbury Public Schools
Substitute band conductor
Conduct band class for grades 5-8

PERFORMANCE EXPERIENCE:

Currently a freelance trombonist (soprano, alto, tenor, and bass) in the Boston area, performing with orchestras, Big Bands, musicals, brass quintets/quartets, and a founding member of the trombone trio Solstice Sackbuts. Performed with Clark Terry, Annie Ross, Hank Levy, and Melissa Aldana; and with the Midland Symphony (MI), Arlington Symphony (VA) and McLean Symphony (VA). Currently subbing with the Cape Ann Symphony, Quincy Symphony, and Lowell Symphony. Also played in pit orchestras at Volkes Theater, Ocean State Theater, and Turtle Lane.