

LISA SCHLIKER

Lisa Schliker received her Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education (with a vocal emphasis) from the Hartt School at the University of Hartford in CT. She graduated with honors in May of 1994. Lisa studied voice with Brenda Lewis at the Hartt School. She is also certified in the Kodaly methodology of teaching music to children.

Lisa is an accomplished soprano who loves to sing everything from Musical Theater to Classical and even some good old “Rock and Roll”! Lisa was honored to sing the National Anthem at the 2010 Marlborough Triathlon (She also completed in the race!). Lisa has sung with several different Choral organizations throughout the area including the Worcester Chorus, the A Cappella Singers of Natick, and the Acton Community Chorus.

Lisa has been the Music Director at the First United Methodist Church in Hudson for over 20 years. She directs the Adult Choir, the Hand bell choir, and she is a featured soloist at many services throughout the year. She is currently the Music Director for the River’s Edge Chorale. She has also directed the River’s Edge Youth Chorus and the Marlborough Community Chorus. Lisa has also taught private voice lessons to children and adults throughout the years.

Lisa is a lifelong resident of Hudson MA who is excited to share her love of music and signing with others in a positive and supporting environment.
